Orchardville

Orchardville is a voluntary organisation and registered charity that provides a range of services to young people and adults with learning disability and autism spectrum condition. We offer services throughout Northern Ireland.

Established in 1982 Orchardville provides a range of high quality services including learning and development programmes, employment based opportunities and community engagement initiatives aimed at supporting service users to become more independent.

The Community Service

- The Community Service is funded by various health trusts and provides opportunities throughout the week to service users living within Belfast, Bangor and Lisburn.
- The service is available Monday to Friday with up to 12 places available per day
- The core times for attending are 10am – 2.00pm.
- Activities are offered at a local base and at various facilities within the community.
- Service users need to make their own way to the base each day.
- All activities are free of charge however a small amount of money is recommended each day to buy tea/coffee or a drink when out and about.

Group Activities

The Community Service offers a menu of group based activities which are supported and supervised by experienced staff.

A monthly programme is available with opportunities to:

- Learn new skills
- Become more independent
- Get more active and healthy
- Sample the world of work
- Make new friends and connect with your local community
